

“ As a psychologist, a woman, and a parent, I have long felt passionate about issues that disproportionately impact women and others who hold oppressed or under-represented identities. I joined CSW as I am particularly interested in helping work toward improvements with significant issues of pay inequity, parental and family leave policies, and work climate and culture for women, especially women of color and those from nontraditional families.”

HOLLY DAVIS, PH.D.

university counseling services,
division of student life
csw member since 2021

