

"I was pleased that the Council on the Status of Women welcomed representatives from all work classifications. I joined to ensure that the perspective of merit staff members was represented in discussions and decisions that could affect their workplace culture and provide opportunities for enrichment, growth, and support."

Sally Robbins

*University Counseling Services
CSW Member since 2017*